

Yale Eleven Receives Jolt by Injury to Acosta, Veteran Lineman, in Practice Game

YALE'S VETERAN GUARD IS HURT

Acosta Suffers Injury to Leg and Will Be Out for Two Weeks.

Varsity Rushes Ball Gains Consistently Against Second Team—Field Goal for Murphy.

Special Despatch to THE HERALD. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 4.—The members of the Yale varsity football squad, although nearly all took part in the game against Carnegie Tech Saturday, were put through a stiff half hour of scrimmages at the field this afternoon, and before it was over two men were put out temporarily. They were Acosta, the veteran left guard, and Sturm, who has been a second string fullback, but who was playing this position on the varsity.

Acosta's leg was hurt and he will be out of the game for a couple of weeks at least. This is a severe blow to Yale, as Acosta is the best guard on the squad. He was moved over to the varsity at tackle and Trippe took Bean's place. Kernan took Sturm's place on the varsity for the remaining few minutes of the scrimmaging. Sturm was dazed in a collision and not ready to start.

In the scrimmage the varsity started with the ball on its own 3 yard line and by a series of close formations carried the ball to the second team's 5 yard line, where Murphy's team braced and held the big team for downs.

The second team then took the offense and slowly pushed the varsity back. The varsity held the team for downs from time to time, but the coaches kept giving the ball back to the second team with the result that when unable to score by straight formations Murphy was allowed to kick a goal from the 20 yard line. The lineup of the varsity was: Cutler and Dilworth, ends; Dickens and Mackay, tackles; Acosta, Ino and Herr, guards; Callahan, center; Kempton, quarterback; Aldrich, left halfback; French, right halfback; Sturm and Kernan, fullbacks.

SHAKEUP DUE IN DARTMOUTH LINE

Return of Injured Men Will Cause Shifts.

Special Despatch to THE HERALD. HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 4.—Dartmouth's football stock rose considerably to-day with the return of Shelburne, star halfback, and Capt. Robertson to the regular lineup. Robertson was only slightly injured, but Coach Spears kept him out of the Norwich game as a precaution against losing his services for the Penn State battle on Saturday. Shelburne, however, has been laid up with a wrenched knee for three weeks, and the coaching staff feared that he would be lost for a longer period. Allen, whose callabone was broken earlier, and Browne, captain of the basketball team, also returned to the squad.

With the return of these two veterans the Green backfield will receive a severe shakeup. Robertson will be shifted to fullback, while Shelburne will be at right half. Jordan and Holbrook will alternate in the halfback position. J. Sanderson, Grandman and Foster will be the substitute trio. At quarter back will work regularly, with Calder and Carleton in reserve.

Dartmouth's line came through Saturday's contest without a scratch and will be in good condition for the fray with Penn State this week. Worth and Threshie will be the ends to start, Sonnenberg and Neidlinger the tackles, Moore and Crisp the guards and Cunningham center.

There will be only two more practice sessions for the Green this week, as the squad will leave Hanover Thursday afternoon. This will afford a short workout at the State College on Friday. Coach Spears probably will take twenty-five men on the trip, in addition to three other coaches and the managers.

PENN LOSES STAR GUARD.

Herbert Dieter Decides Not to Return to College.

Special Despatch to THE HERALD. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 4.—Penn's football prospects received a bad jolt last night when it was announced that Herbert Dieter, star veteran guard, would not come back to college this season. The former Maston Park High School gridiron star is in business with his brother in New York and cannot get away to complete his training at Penn. Another promising football man who has just left Penn is Johnny Patterson, the junior champion sprinter from Port Jervis, N. Y., a likely looking gridiron candidate.

Patterson has fallen behind in his scholastic work and for the present would have been ineligible to participate in Red and Blue athletics. Patterson expects to go to Colgate.

Another blow to the Penn team was the sudden death of J. H. Long, a substitute back field man, who died of peritonitis, which set in after Long was on the way to recovery following an operation for appendicitis. Long played in the game against Delaware and made several long runs.

TRICK PLAYS FOR FORDHAM ELEVEN

New Attack Tried Out in Practice.

Secret practice was held at Fordham Field for the first time this season yesterday afternoon. Coach Dumoe put his charges through an intensive drill in the various shifts and trick plays which he hopes to spring against Boston College in the tunnel with the Ithaca eleven next Saturday.

In last Saturday's contest with the New York Aggies the Maroon aggregation was content to confine itself to straight football, which was enough to give them an overwhelming victory over the "Farmers." Dumoe announced last night, however, that he will adopt an entirely different style of play against the powerful Boston team, and Fordham rooters are curious to see what the new Maroon mentor is planning.

Duff, the former Rutgers guard, who was a candidate for the Fordham team earlier in the season, but who was forced to give up the gridiron sport owing to his failure to meet the entrance requirements, appeared in uniform at Fordham Field yesterday. He has passed his examinations and is eligible to play. The one weakness of the Maroon eleven is the line, and Duff should prove a wonderful help in bolstering this department of the team.

Georgetown Nine Is Champion of Venezuela

As a result of straight victories over all opponents, a baseball team made up of visiting foreign trade students of Georgetown University has been declared champion of Venezuela, and has received a silver loving cup from the Minister of Public Instruction.

According to the National Foreign Trade Council, this cup was won by the Georgetown team after a series of baseball games with various Venezuelan teams. A team of American citizens living in Caracas, the capital of Venezuela, also was defeated by the foreign trade students. Similar delegates of students will be sent out each year to foreign countries to complete their foreign trade education and to act as trade ambassadors for the overseas commerce of the United States.

FOOTBALL STRIKE IS OFF.

Flushing H. S. Youngsters to Yield to Faculty Ruling.

Twenty of the leaders among the pupils of the Flushing High School, who are also members of the football squad of the school, met yesterday afternoon and decided that there would be no strike of the members of the team and that they would proceed with their training and do their best to win games on the gridiron this season for the school, despite the debarment of several regulars because of scholastic standing.

The meeting had been called by Prof. William D. Pulviamacher, assistant coach of the team and one of the professors in the school. This action by the football squad ended several days of very disturbed conditions in the school in which threats of the pupils to go on a strike were heard.

TIGERS FEEL NEED OF SUBSTITUTES

Coaches Looking for Stronger Second String Gridiron Players.

Special Despatch to THE HERALD. PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 4.—The Tiger warriors, who got into action against Swarthmore last Saturday, had a fast signal drill of fifteen minutes only, while those who warmed the bench during the season's first encounter were favored with an hour of scrimmaging, which turned out to be a pretty loose performance.

Some of the men showed signs of hard knocks of the Swarthmore encounter, especially Brian, Al Willner and Capt. Callahan, all three of whom probably will be given a good rest. In view of the stiffness of the schedule which the locals still have to face Coach Roper does not believe in any overwork at this early date in the season.

Two new men on University Field today were Marion Wilson of the class of 1915, who is the latest addition to the coaching staff and who will assist Jack Winn, '19, in instructing the ends, and Hank Garrity, who made his first appearance of the season in the varsity lineup. Hank has been fast rounding into shape and should soon be as dependable as he was last fall.

Bill Roper's worry at the present time is the lack of able substitutes, if the results of the fracas with Swarthmore and Roper's own words on the field this afternoon are of any significance. The first string men in most cases will fill the bill, but after they are withdrawn there is nobody of equal calibre to call upon. With the purpose of settling this serious defect in the mechanism of the Tiger machine the Nassau mentors this afternoon put their second string charges through a concentrated drilling in fundamentals, the ends doing a lot of tackling, while the tackles charged the machines and the guards had a spell at tackling the familiar dummy. Some more time was spent on the defence of the aerial attack and the scrimmage closed the matinee.

Seventeen men have been detailed to the training table, one of the smallest numbers on record. The list includes Callahan, Opie, Dickinson, Thomas, Speers, Towers, Keck, Ruhoff, Hooper, Davis, Raymond, Lourie, Gilroy, Murray, Wittmer, Scheerer and Garrity.

NAVY ELEVEN'S LINE IS STRENGTHENED

Return of Olympic Athletes Bolsters Team.

Special Despatch to THE HERALD. ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 4.—Without a trace of discouragement over the defeat Saturday by North Carolina State the Naval Academy team started work this afternoon in preparation for Lafayette at the end of the week. The regular Academy routine has started and the squad was not on the field until after 5 o'clock, but there was time for a short scrimmage.

The line was strengthened greatly by placing Moore, a regular of last year, at right guard and Wilkie, the 215 pound wrestler, at left guard. Wiedorn and Carney remain at the tackles for the present. King, regular right tackle of last season, will not report until Wednesday on account of illness in his family.

The squad of end candidates was strengthened by moving Parr from tackle to that position and by the reporting of Clapp, the Olympic weight thrower. Koehler, Cruise, Watters, Barobert and Noyes were used in the backfield.

IMPORTED CHAMPION TERRIER IS BEATEN

Wire Haired Fox Aman Marvel Goes Down at Philadelphia.

By FRANK F. DOLE.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—Wirehaired fox terriers featured the first annual specialty show by the Underhill Kennel Club on the grounds of the J. & J. Dobson Athletic Association to-day. Not only did the entry outnumber the rest of the breeds, but it was also the most typical entry of imported and home bred stock seen at a local show since the days of the Wissahickon Kennel Club. The judging, which was done ably by Theodore Offerman of Brooklyn, created more than passing interest inasmuch as the well known imported champion Aman Marvel was exhibited for specials only. He went down to defeat for the first time since arriving in this country. The winning bitch Champion Dorenda Saunders of New York took the special for best of breed and later outscored the rest of the entries for the best in the show.

Alredead terriers again came into their own when the imported champion Ridge-wood Rocket, the property of Frederick Hood of Brookline, Mass., not only swept the boards for best of the breed, but also was awarded the special for best opposite sex to best in show winner. This victory was one of the most popular of the day, inasmuch as Rocket was formerly owned by Andrew McCrea of this city.

Strong competition prevailed for the special offered by Albert H. Rosengarten for the best local dog or bitch. This prize was awarded to the well known local West Highland bitch, champion Duchess of Sutherland, owned by Miss Kathleen Illingworth of Fox Chase. The judging in Boston terriers created at least one surprise. That happened in the winners dogs when the Home-ranger, owned by Mrs. Mary E. Brecht of this city went over Frank Young's Sedgwick Solitaire. There was also another surprise when the winner was awarded to Swainson's May-Bee, owned by W. E. Swainson of Washington, D. C. This bitch was placed over the well known entry Crossis Lady, property of Toni Grosz of this city.

CORNELL PLEASED WITH TEAM'S PLAY

Open Football Feature Considered Encouraging.

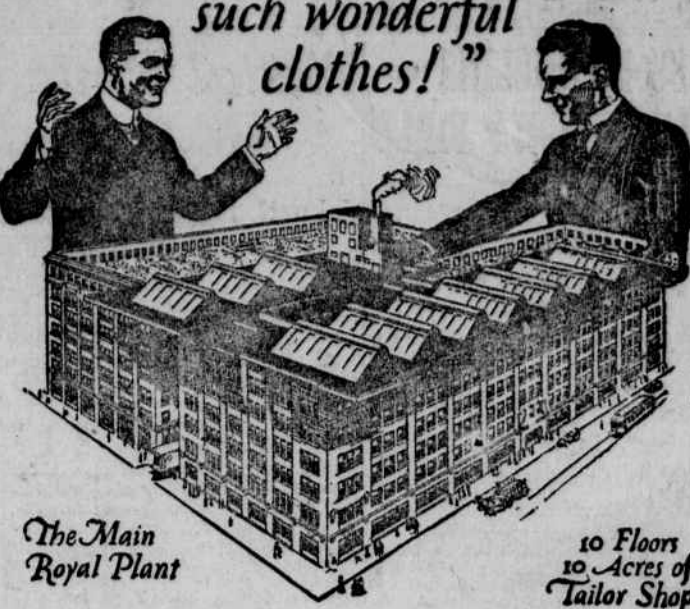

Special Despatch to THE HERALD. ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Cornell's showing against Rochester in the opening game Saturday neither disappointed nor elated Coach Gilmour Dobie, according to his summary of the game to-day. Dobie discussed the contest for an hour before the squad in the lecture room before sending them out for a rather stiff early week practice.

The impression of the undergraduate body seems to be one of satisfaction, with the hope that Dobie will be able to make a formidable team out of the green material after a time. One thing that stands out in campus comment is satisfaction over the clean handling of the ball and the fact that Cornell not only tried the forward pass but made it work. They have been shouting for open football at Ithaca for years and they seem to feel now that Dobie will give it to them.

YALE'S SOCCER SCHEDULE.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 4.—Yale's soccer schedule given out to-day includes these dates: At home, Syracuse, October 16; College City of New York, October 23; Cornell, October 30; Pennsylvania, November 6; Harvard, November 20. Away from home, at Princeton, November 13, and at Haverford, November 27.

TALES OF RICORO

Two were out with a man on third. 'Strike one'; a nervous fidgeting. 'Strike two'; a deadly calm. Was it going to be a repetition of 'Casey at the Bat'? But the next ball was just right. 'Whang!' straight for the bleachers. 'A fellow next to me made one mad leap into the air, his fist descending on my new straw hat, and I heard the second crack that day.

"'What the—' I started.

"'S all right, old man' he said. And before I knew it he had stuck a cigar into my mouth and lighted it.

"Automatically I puffed on it. Wonderful! 'Say, friend,' I exhaled, 'You must be 'cashing in' on this game judging from the quality of your cigars.'

"'Not so,' he answered, 'S only a 15 cent Ricoro from the United Cigar Stores.'

"'Only!' I gasped, 'Believe me, man, it's a homer with the bases full.'
